

News

Spectacular start of asphalt mixing plants in Tatarstan

Six high-output Ammann Universal 240 asphalt mixing plants situated hundreds of kilometres apart were simultaneously taken into operation in the cities of Arsk, ...

... >>

Processing drill sludge in the Gotthard base tunnel

The Gotthard base tunnel through the Swiss Alps measures 57 kilometres in length and is covered by 2,000 metres of rock. World record! Construction sites as large as ...

... >>

Crushosaurus – a sample image from a very special photo archive

It is 1905 and Ammann – a company that to date has produced mainly farming and forestry machines – has successfully expanded its range with crushers, and has just begun ...

... >>

Ammann Tandem Rollers in the Limelight

Precise, cost-effective asphaltting is in progress on Germany's Federal Highway B523 near Villingen-Schwenningen thanks to three Ammann tandem rollers: two AV 85-2 ACEs ...

... >>

Ulrich Andreas Ammann takes a step back

Ulrich Andreas Ammann is retiring from operative business. As a representative of the fifth Ammann generation he has been loyally involved with his family's company all ...

... >>